Each reference in this Agreement to "you" or "your" means each consumer who signs the Application (and refers to all such consumers jointly and severally). By submitting the Application, you agree to the terms of this Agreement. If you have submitted your Application as a consumer, you also agree to the terms of this Agreement applicable to "Consumer Service" and further agree that you will use the Service only for personal Accounts (as defined below) and only for personal, family or household purposes. Please read this Agreement carefully and keep a copy for your records.

1. ACCOUNT REQUIREMENTS. In order to subscribe to the Service, you must have at least one account with us, designated on the Application. You may also include other checking accounts and one or more savings accounts, money market deposit accounts, certificates of deposit, and loan accounts you have with us (collectively with the Checking Account, the "Accounts"). Each account may not be an account for which two signatures are required for withdrawals or loans. For Consumer Service, an authorized signer of each Account must sign the Application as a party to this Agreement.

2. HARDWARE AND INTERNET USE.

- a. There are certain minimum technical requirements to access your accounts. If you need further assistance, call All America Bank during normal business hours.
- b. NO LIABILITY. We are not responsible for any error, damage or other loss you may suffer due to the malfunction or misapplication of any software or system you use, including, without limitation, telecommunications facilities, computer hardware and modem. You are solely responsible for the set-up and maintenance of your computer and modem. Except as specifically required in this Agreement or by applicable law, you agree that we will not be liable for any damage, whether direct, indirect, special or consequential or otherwise, including economic, property, personal, or other loss or injury, whether caused by hardware or system-wide failure, whether due to a virus or other disabling routine, or otherwise, or resulting from the installation, use or maintenance of the equipment, or other items necessary to access or use the Service.
- c. SPYWARE. We are not responsible for any authorized or unauthorized access to your computer or any computer from which the Services are used. You are responsible for ensuring that the computer used to access the System has the proper hardware and/or software to protect it from potentially harmful activity or infection. Protection should include firewall, anti-virus and anti-spyware software which is updated regularly. It is not the responsibility of the Bank to provide, monitor, update, install, remove, or troubleshoot any software or hardware on the computer used to access the System. While we may provide information from time to time about security risks, we are not responsible for warning you of such risks and are not responsible should your computer be subjected to such a risk. Any information possibly obtained due to spyware, virus attack or hacking of your computer is not our responsibility.

3. USER ID, PASSWORD, CUSTOMER ID, AND PERSONAL SECURITY CODE. The Internet Banking Service (as defined below) has a User ID and a Password. All such information is referred to herein as the “Codes”. The initial User ID and Password ID is assigned by the Bank. The User ID and Password ID may be changed, which is highly recommended, after successfully logging in to the Internet Banking Service. You will set up your own User ID and Password ID according to the instructions given to you at the time of approval from the Bank. You should keep your Codes confidential and in a secure location. Any person having access to any of your Codes will be able to access the Service and perform transactions, including reviewing Account information and making transfers to other Accounts and to third parties. 6. FUND TRANSFERS AND ACCOUNT INFORMATION.

- a. INTERNET BANKING SERVICE. You may use the Service to: (i) transfer funds between your Accounts that are checking, savings, or money market deposits; (ii) view current balance information for your Accounts; and (iii) import or export your Account information to and from financial management software such as Microsoft Money or Quicken.
- b. FUND TRANSFERS; AUTHORIZATION. You may transfer funds between your Accounts that are checking, savings, or money market deposit accounts in any amount equal to or greater than $ 1.00 AND LESS THAN $10,000. When you request a fund transfer using the Service, you authorize us to follow the transfer instructions and transfer the funds from the designated originating Account to the designated recipient Account. The “Transaction Date” is the date that the fund transfer is actually made. If we receive your fund transfer request before 4:00 P.M. Central Time on a Business Day, that Business Day will be the Transaction Date. Otherwise, the Transaction Date will be the next Business Day. We deduct the amount of your fund transfer from the designated originating Account on the Transaction Date. We may refuse to act on your fund transfer instruction if sufficient funds, including funds available under any overdraft plan, are not available in your Account on the Transaction Date. Funds transferred to the designated recipient Account will be deemed deposited on the Transaction Date and will be available thereafter in accordance with our funds transfer availability policy.

- c. ACCOUNT INFORMATION. The Account balance shown will be current as of the immediately preceding Business Day. The Account balance may include deposits still subject to verification by us and may not include deposits or loans in progress, outstanding checks or payments, or other withdrawals, payment, credits, or charges.

7. LIMITS ON TRANSFERS FROM ACCOUNTS. Federal regulations limit the number of certain types of transfers from savings and money market deposit accounts. You are limited to six pre-authorized electronic fund transfers and telephone transfers, including bill payments transactions, checks and point-of-sale transactions, per month. Of these six transactions, you are limited to no more than three transactions per month by check or point-of-sale. Each fund transfer or bill payment through the Service from your savings or money market deposit Account is counted as one of the six transfers you are permitted each month. However, payments to your loan accounts with us are not counted toward this limit for savings and money market deposit Accounts. Your ability to transfer funds from certain Accounts is also subject to the Account Agreements. You should refer to these agreements for legal restrictions and service charges applicable for excessive withdrawals and transfers.

8. PERIODIC STATEMENTS. All of your fund transfers and bill payments made through the Service will appear on the periodic statement for each Account, as applicable.
